GEN. JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE.

The arrival at his old home, in Lexington, Ky., of the great soldier and statesman, has been very properly made the occasion for all sorts of quiet and appropriste demonstrations of affection and love, by Gen. BRECKINBIDGE's neighbors and friends. With hearts overflowing with sympathy for the returning exile, the people all along the line, from Cincinnati to Lexington, impatiently awaited his arrival, to testify to him a respect and love as tender, as true and as hearty as the human race is susceptible of. At home the joy was unmixed; most heartfelt manner, showed. JOHN C. BRECKINEIDGE has the undivided love of the people.

To Live Merchants Throughout the Country Naturally Tributary to Memphis,

WE HAVE A WORD TO SAY: You must BUY LIGHT and BUY OFTEN if you would make money in this age of charge and rapid fluctuations. ALL YOUR INTERESTS point you to your NEAREST MARKET for supplies, and they arge, IN TRUMPET TONES, the importance of a RIGID CONFORMITY to the Ready Pay System.

If you recognize the truth of these facts, you can buy to advantage from an PXCLUSIVELY which is seeking to do business ONLY UPON THIS IDEA. Stock
